Dear Mr Garrison —

83 I have received the papers which you so kindly sent me, and have read with much interest the account of your recent visit to Newburyport - of the dinner given to you by the Franklin Club, and your Memorial Notice of Mr George Thompson — my wife and the young people, and Mary Burnham who "happened" in as she often does - as I was about to read them were also very much interested, and I have passed them to my mother who is always glad to hear of old friends and associations — I propose when she is done with them to hand them to Sarah Pugh - who also feels great interest in them.

In 1844 I was a very young man and was in London for a few weeks on my way to Russia where I was engaged in business for some years — Some one of our Anti Slavery

My wife & I with our daughter Anna spent a few days in Newport R.I and we have wondered whether you have seen the many beautiful places on the Cliffs and elsewhere in that beautiful & interesting town — You may remember that you spoke of the many charming homes you had seen in England, and of those near which you had ~~spent~~ last summer in Tarrytown — we have wondered how the residences - the beautiful lawns and the landscape gardening at Newport compare with those in the neighborhood of Tarrytown -

We spent a day at West Point, and it was part of our plan to stop at Tarrytown & drive around the neighborhood - but we could not arrange it.

I suppose you are well, or you would not feel like renewing your youth at type-setting - or being dined by typographical societies - we hope you may see many such anniversaries & enjoy them all.

Yours sincerely
Enoch Lewis.

Wm Lloyd Garrison Boston Mass.-

friends had given me a letter to Mr Thompson, and I presented it - he was very kind to me, and invited me to breakfast with him the next day - I had had very little Experience in Society and I remember being impressed with the - to me - very unusual circumstance - of being invited to breakfast at 10 a.m - or thereabouts - I think Dr Thompson officiated at the Coffee urn - and was as kind and Considerate of me as he could be all thro' I in my youth & inexperience had little to offer him in return

It was the same year or two years later that I was in Sheffield, and through the same agency - that is through Arch Slaven friends - became acquainted with Mary Brady & Sister - who made much of me and insisted upon my making their house my home while in their town - I have always felt very grateful to them for their kindness to me. -

Since you were in Philadelphia

Please remember me to Mrs Smith.
